Hear the Call of GOD

This poster can now be found in all French churches. The translation is: "By entering this church it may be possible that you hear "the call of God." However, it is less probable that He will call you on your mobile. Thank you for turning off your phones. If you want to talk to God - enter, choose a quiet place and talk to Him. If you want to SEE Him - send Him a text while driving."

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE RACIAL DIVIDE IN THE UNITED STATES
BY BISHOP EDWARD K. BRAXTON

WESTERFIELD CENTER
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2018 AT 7:00 PM

While the Bishop's formal education and writings in systematic theology have led to teaching positions at Harvard Divinity School, the University of Notre Dame, the Catholic University of America, and the Pontifical North American College in Rome, in recent years he has turned his scholarship to the question of racial divide. In 2015, he issued his Pastoral Letter, "The Racial Divide in the United States: A Reflection for the World Day of Peace 2015." In 2016, he published the companion Pastoral Letter, "The Catholic Church and the Black Lives Matter Movement: The Racial Divide Revisited." These were followed by "Moral Leadership in Action: All Lives Really Do Matter" and "There are no Minority Voters." Since their publication, Bishop Braxton has lectured nationally, becoming a leading voice in the Catholic Church on improving race relations. The Bishop's writings and addresses are intended to invite individuals and groups to enter into conversations about important and sensitive subjects without judging racial divide. On September 21, 2017, he delivered the university address at The Catholic University of America on "The Horizon of Possibilities: The Catholic Church and the Racial Divide in the United States, Old Wounds Reopened." On February 1, 2018, he delivered the African American History Month Address at the Sheil Catholic Center of Northwestern University. On February 21, 2018, he delivered the 12th Annual Thomas Merton Address on "Thomas Merton's "Letter to a White Liberal" and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s "Letter from a Birmingham Jail" at Bellarmine University in Louisville Kentucky.

The Bishop's address (see information below) will examine key elements contributing to the racial divide in the United States and the emergence of the Black Lives Matter Movement from the perspective of the Catholic Church. He will explore the reasons why only a small number of African-Americans are Catholic (2.9 million out of nearly 70 million), the "all lives matter" vs. "Black lives matter" debate, and the negative impact of the erroneous expressions "minorities" and "minority groups." He will conclude by exploring the question of what can the Catholic Church do to help bridge the racial divide.

BISHOP BRAXTON WILL SPEAK AT THE WESTERFIELD CENTER, DIOCESE OF BATON ROUGE ON THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2018 AT 7:00 PM. ALL ARE WELCOME AND ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND!

Each week you may honor a loved one with a gift of $150 to dedicate the floral arrangement that adorns our Sanctuary.

Memorial Gifts

At the death of a loved one, many choose in lieu of flowers to encourage friends and family to make a donation to a special charity or cause. Our Lady of Mercy has nourished the spiritual life of so many parishioners and those throughout the Diocese who come here. A Memorial Gift to our Traditions for Tomorrow Building Campaign is a wonderful way to acknowledge the lives of our beloved dead with a gift of loving generosity to the church that has been such a spiritual home. Ms. Deanie Smith can discuss ways for you to remember your loved one. Consider adding a planned gift in your last will and testament to remember Our Lady of Mercy.

PARISH LIFE

FEAST OF ST. PADRE PIO

Special 3:00 pm Mass on Sunday, September 23rd

Marking the 50th anniversary of his death and the 100th anniversary of his stigmata, Our Lady of Mercy will celebrate a special Mass for the Feast Day of St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina with celebrant Fr. Steve Rodrigues, OFM, Cap.

Padre Pio was a friar, priest, stigmatist, and mystic, now venerated as a saint of the Catholic Church. Born Francesco Forgione, he was given the name of Pius (Italian: Pio) when he joined the Order of Friars Minor Capuchin. Padre Pio became famous for his stigmata for most of his life. He was both beatified (1999) and canonized (2002) by Pope St. John Paul II. The Sanctuary of Saint Pio of Pietrelcina is located in San Giovanni Rotondo, Province of Foggia, Italy.

Adult Bible Study Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible

Thursdays starting October 4th

7:00 pm

OLOM Parish Activity Center (St. Gabriel)

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible comprises 8 weeks of video lectures and small group discussion focusing on God's plan for our salvation from Creation and the Fall through the coming of Christ and the establishment of the Church. In his lectures and in the student workbooks, Jeff Cavins builds a basic understanding of Scripture in light of Catholic teaching. With this understanding, the Mass readings make more sense, and our personal reading and study comes to life as we see how God's loving plan guides our lives. Please register online at: www.olomchurch.com
The cost of the book is $25.

REFLECTION ON ST. PADRE PIO BY FR. STEVE

St. Padre Pio, a Franciscan Capuchin friar and one of the greatest saints of all time, was blessed by God in many wonderful and mysterious ways; the most dramatic being the stigmata. Among his other gifts were Bilocation, prophecy, reading of souls, Levitation, apparition, conversion, "odor of sanctity" and miraculous cures. People are still being cured through his intercession in ways that cannot be explained by medicine or science. St. Pio is a great miracle-worker and a powerful intercessor whose feast we celebrate on September 23.

Padre Pio was born May 25, 1887 in Pietrelcina, a small town in southern Italy, and he died on September 23, 1968. Though he suffered through intense, prolonged physical pain, he persevered and met with throngs of people who sought his blessing, healing, and advice. The core of his message to all, a message many associated with miraculous healing, was the simple command of liberation: "Pray, Hope, and Don't Worry." "Once you make known your needs, fears, hopes, concerns, doubts and struggles to God in prayer, and have asked for His help," explains the Capuchin priest, "you have to now trust the Lord to listen because of his great compassion."

Padre Pio's motto, "Pray, Hope and Don't Worry" is the synopsis of his application of theology in daily life. A Christian should recognize God in everything, offering everything to Him saying, "Thy will be done." In addition, all should aspire to heaven and put their trust in Him and not worry about what he is doing, as long as it is done with a desire to please God.

When he spoke of the Mass, St. Pio said: "It is easier for the earth to exist without the sun than without the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass!" "Look at all the people from all over the world he gathered around him! Why?" said Pope Paul VI in 1971. "Because he said Mass humbly, heard confessions from dawn to dusk and was - it is not easy to say it - one who bore the wounds of Our Lord. He was a man of prayer and suffering." St. Pio was known for sitting in the confessional for up to 15 to 17 hours a day; the tireless confessor is said to have heard millions of confessions, giving hope to the desperate and distressed penitents. Despite his suffering, he was unfailingly compassionate and jovial.

This charming saint gave spiritual and physical assistance to families who came to him for advice. He had that concern, knowing the family is 'the first school and the first church' because that's where the children learn to pray, learn about God, and learn the things they need for the rest of their lives. He was kind and loving toward children and always gave them special blessings.

One of the pilgrims that came to meet the mysterious monk, and who had great admiration, esteem and veneration, and who confessed with him, was St. John Paul II who said: "I wish to thank the Lord for having given us dear Padre Pio, for having given him to our generation in this very tormented century. In his love for God and for his brothers and sisters, he is a sign of great hope". On June 16, 2002, Pope John Paul II declared his spiritual friend, Padre Pio a saint.

The Rosary was part and parcel of Padre Pio's love for the Mother of Jesus, stating that "The Rosary is the 'weapon' against Satan for these times, a weapon of defense and salvation." Many know Mary only with their minds. Padre Pio knew her with his heart. Above Padre Pio's door were the words: "Mary is the reason of all my hope." The Rosary has been the seat belt that we need in these times of turbulence in our troubled society.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of Padre Pio's death and centennial since receiving the stigmata. God gave us Padre Pio to remind a skeptical world that God Exists and that the intrigues and scandals are trivial compared to the great goal of heaven. In everything, St. Pio counseled people by word and example to "pray, hope and don't worry." It was his prescription for eternal health which gave comfort and healing to millions. Could there be a more fitting message for our time of stress and uncertainty - or a more effective means to spiritual growth? Life is stressful, but Padre Pio had the way to deal with all of life's troubles; and so it is wise and still relevant today to follow the admonition - pray, hope and don't worry. Happy feast!
