EUCCHARISTIC PROCESSION

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

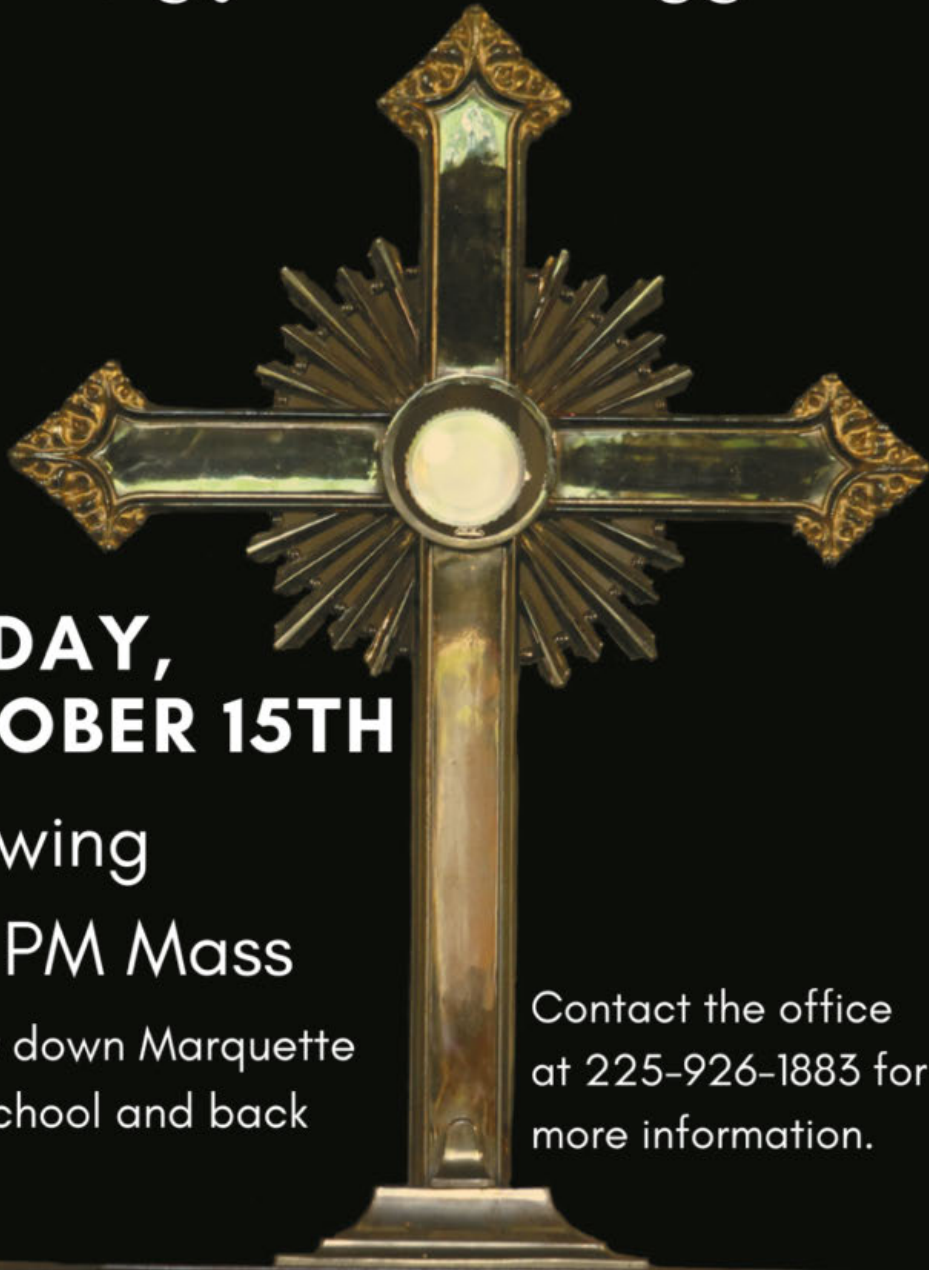

In 2022, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) launched a 3-year Eucharistic Revival. Last year, dioceses across our country embarked on initiatives to revive our understanding and deepen our love for our Savior Jesus Christ who is 100% present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. The need to revive- literally bring back to life - is great. Many Catholics fail to recognize that Jesus, in His body, blood, soul and divinity, is fully present in the Eucharist.

In this second year of the Revival, parishes are encouraged to provide opportunities for the community to discover or renew a relationship with Jesus. Our Lady of Mercy has a long history of promoting devotion to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist with our perpetual Adoration Chapel. To further embrace the spirit of the USCCB's call for Revival, we are also happy to announce a Eucharistic Procession on Sunday, October 15 at the conclusion of 6pm Mass. This beautiful tradition, which dates back centuries, is a public expression of our most deeply held conviction that Jesus Christ is truly present in the Eucharist.

All are invited to participate in the Eucharistic Procession by either processing a short walk down Marquette or remaining in the church in prayer until the procession returns to the church for Benediction. Parishioners of all ages are encouraged attend the candle light procession.
